Graduate School Alliance for Executive Coaching Re-Elects Dr. Ruth Orenstein President for Third Term

May 20, 2010 – The Board of Directors of the Graduate School Alliance for Executive Coaching (GSAEC) elected Dr. Ruth Orenstein president for a third term. The election was unanimous and was held as part of the April 16 annual meeting at Bellevue University, Omaha, NE. Dr. Orenstein is a member of the Organizational Consulting and Executive Coaching teaching faculty in the Organizational Dynamics graduate studies program at the University of Pennsylvania.

At the meeting, an award in recognition of exemplary service was presented to Dr. Robert Hicks, University of Texas at Dallas, who served as the first GSAEC president (2006-2008). A new member of the Board was also elected: Natalie Witthuhn, from the Wits School of Business at the University of Witwatersrand in South Africa.

The mission of the Graduate School Alliance for Executive Coaching (GSAEC) is to establish and maintain standards for education and training provided by academic institutions for the discipline and practice of executive and organizational coaching.
